Founder Chairman

Educationist, Philanthropist & Visionary

Great legacies frequently have surprising beginnings. This is the remarkable journey of Dr. S.M. Juniwal, an acclaimed jeweler whose unwavering love of learning revealed his true genius. What started out as a personal goal developed into a revolution in education. For Dr. Juniwal, teaching was a noble vocation motivated by vision, values, and the desire to empower future generations rather than a commercial endeavor.

Dr. Juniwal was a true pioneer in the field of education, having established the Apex International School in Jaipur. His unwavering dedication to academic innovation and excellence over the years produced a powerful constellation of institutions providing top-notch instruction in a variety of fields. In Rajasthan today, the Apex Group is a representation of reliability, excellence, and advancement.

The culmination of his remarkable journey is the founding of Apex University, a multidisciplinary center that offers industry-relevant undergraduate, graduate, doctoral, and diploma programs that have all been approved by prestigious statutory bodies.

According to Dr. Juniwal, the best kind of service is education. He fostered a culture of integrity, growth, and belonging by treating the staff, faculty, and students as his extended family. His goal was to develop leaders who would flourish, invent, and make significant contributions to society—not just to prepare people for careers.

His legacy is deeply embedded in the ethos of Apex University — a living testament to his dream of a brighter, educated, and empowered future.
